SURVIVING THE NEW KULTURKAMPF

From 1871 to 1878 Otto Von Bismarck waged a Kulturkampf ("culture struggle") against the Catholic in Germany, aimed at destroying all remaining Catholic influence over German social order. Bismarck faced the opposition of a militant Pope, Blessed Pius IX, and courageous German bishops. Today, Catholics in America and throughout the Western world find themselves in the midst of a new Kulturkampf, but with very few (if any) bishops willing to fight against it in any effective way and the Pope unable to dispel the Church's debilitating post-conciliar malaise. The homosexual movement, Big Abortion, "hate crimes" and "hate speech" laws, ever-increasing government snooping, and looming control of the Internet all threaten the freedom of Catholics to be Catholics in an increasingly hostile society. Our three speakers will address what the Catholic faithful can do to protect themselves and their loved ones in these times that try Catholic souls.

All Catholics are invited to attend – especially those committed to the Ancient Mass and Catholic tradition and culture.
